

God Makes Promises

Today's Bible Story is from Genesis 18:1-15

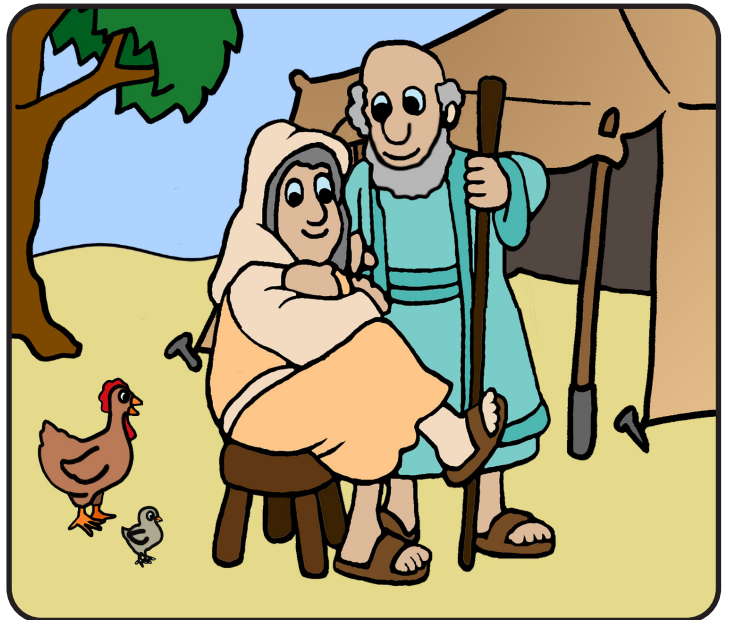

One hot day, Abraham saw three men standing not very far from his tent. The Lord had come to visit.

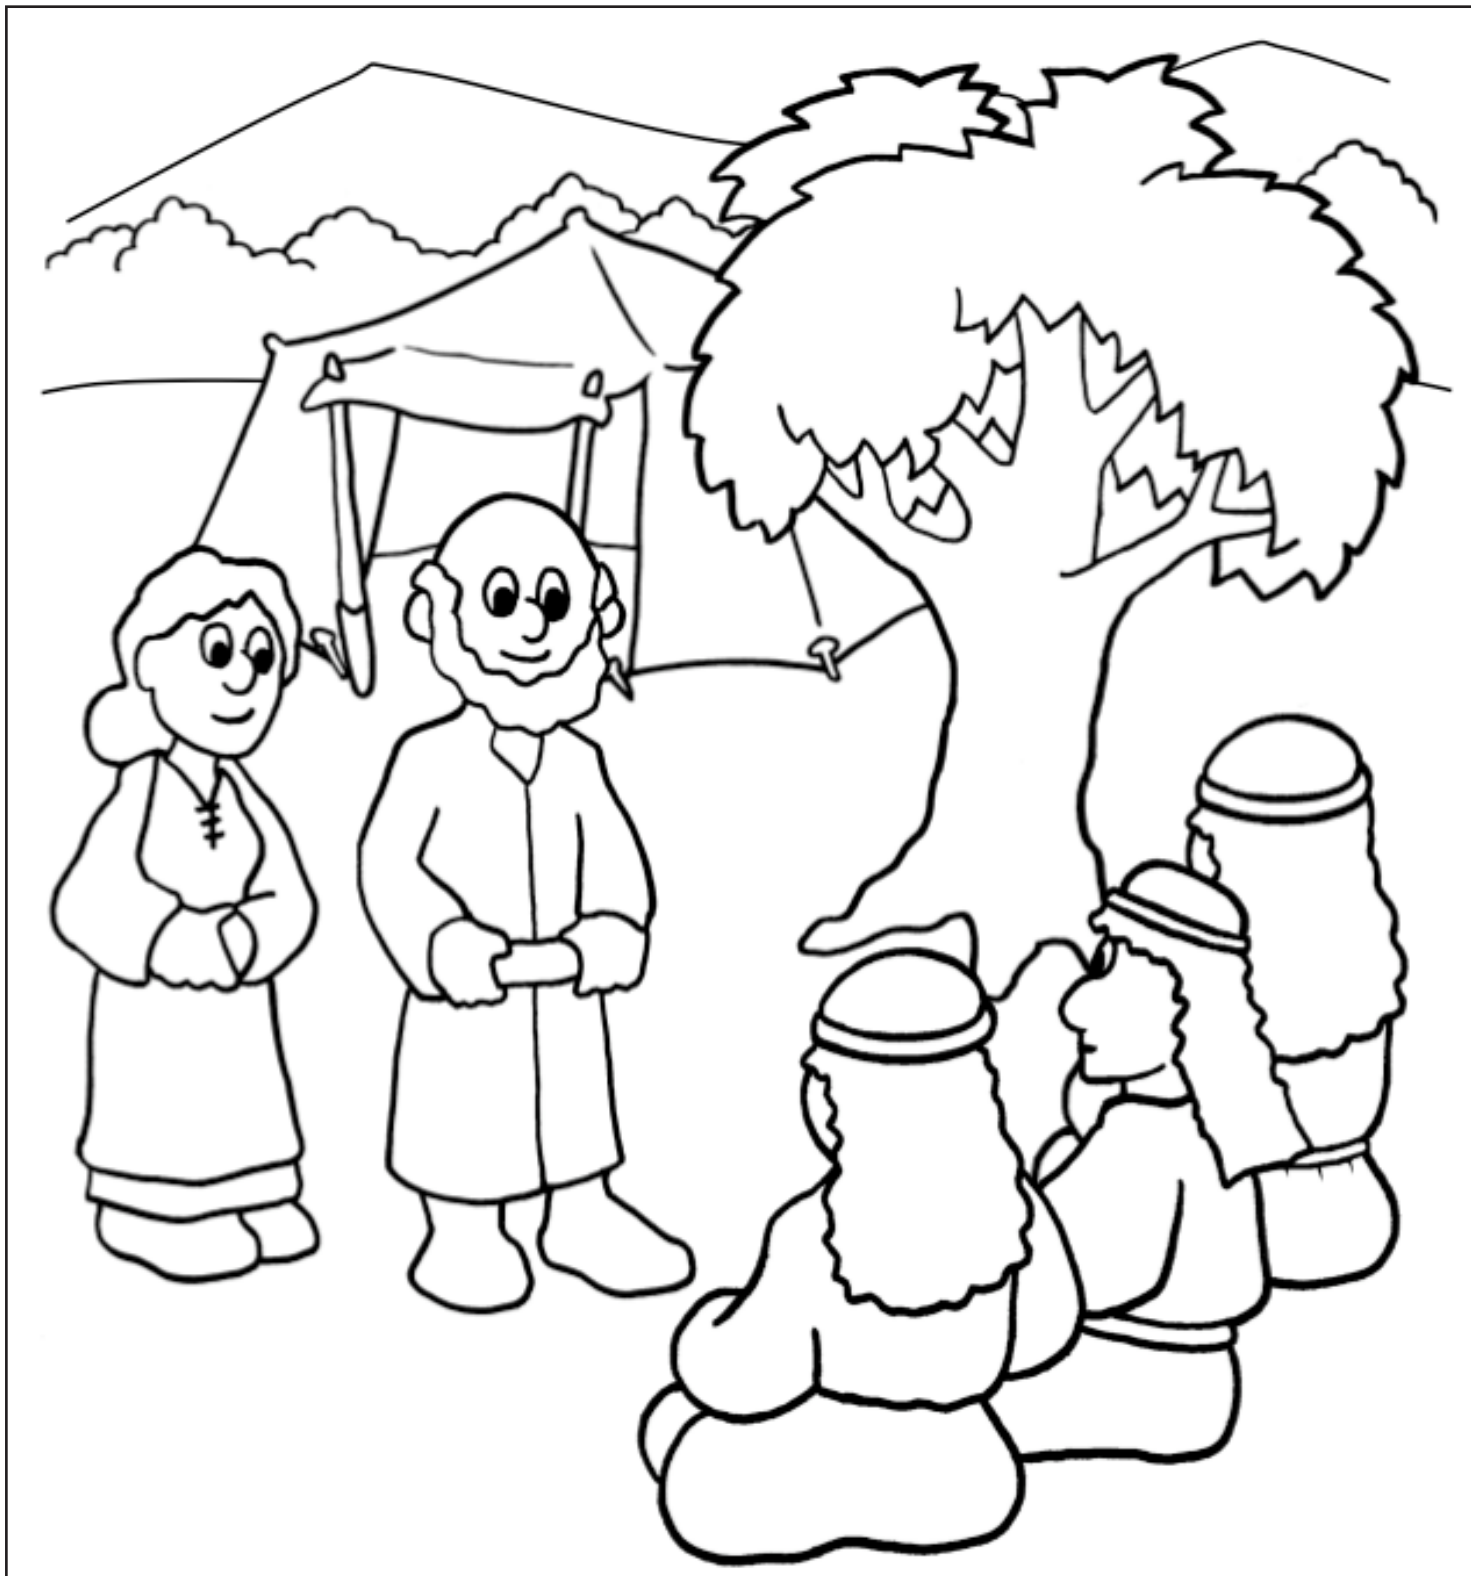

Abraham went to find Sarah. "Please make a loaf of bread for our guests," he said. "I will get them some meat."

The Lord said, "Next year at this time, I will visit you again. By then, Sarah will have a son." Sarah laughed.

Sure enough, months later, Sarah had a baby boy. They named him Isaac, which means "laughter."

God promised Abraham and Sarah a baby.
