

Stop Arguing!

Today's Bible Story is from 1 Corinthians 1:1-25

Paul wrote a letter. "My dear friends, you follow Jesus, as I do," he wrote. "Please get along with each other. Treat each other well."

"Don't take sides," Paul wrote. "I heard that you have been arguing a lot. Some of you claim to follow me or other teachers."

"Was I nailed to a cross for you? Were you baptized in my name? No! Jesus is the Savior. The rest of us are just messengers."

"I know my words may sound foolish to some. But God chose to save those who believe this good news about Jesus!"

People of the Church should try to get along.
