

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you have overcome death through your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, and have opened to us the gate of everlasting life. We humbly beseech you that as you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help we may bring them to good effect; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-9

⁶On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined. ⁷And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸He will swallow up death forever; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. ⁹It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

Psalms 16

¹Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;*

I have said to the LORD, "You are my LORD, my good above all other."

²All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land,*
upon those who are noble among the people.

³But those who run after other gods*
shall have their troubles multiplied.

⁴Their libations of blood I will not offer,*
nor take the names of their gods up on my lips.

⁵O LORD, you are my portion and my cup;*
it is you who uphold me.

⁶My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;*
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

⁷I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel;*
my heart teaches me, night after night.

⁸I have set the LORD al-ways before me;*
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.

⁹My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;*
my body also shall rest in hope.

¹⁰For you will not abandon me to the grave,*
nor let your holy one see the Pit.

¹¹You will show me the path of life;*
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

¹Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you — unless you believed in vain. ²For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, ³that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁴and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁵Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. ⁶Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁷Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. ⁸For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ⁹But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹⁰Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Gospel: Mark 16:1-8

¹When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" ⁴And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back — it was very large. ⁵And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. ⁶And he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.
