When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me.” For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.) Jesus then asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Legion,” for many demons had entered him. And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

Jesus cast out unclean spirits.

Children's Worship Pages

This herd of pigs is feeding on the hillside.

How many pigs do you see?

Count them by writing a number on each one's back.

After Jesus got rid of a man's demons, things changed!

Draw the man after Jesus healed him.

Be sure to include these things in your picture:

- The man is smiling, instead of yelling.
- The man is free, rather than in chains.
- The man is standing, instead of lying on the ground.
- The man is in a house, rather than living outside.
