Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? If then you are not able to do as small a thing as that, why are you anxious about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass, which is alive in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith!

Today's Gospel Lesson

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost
August 10, 2025

God watches over the birds, the flowers--and us!

Children's Worship Pages

Jesus said that God takes care of the birds.
How?

*Draw a baby bird in the nest below.
Then, draw some of the things God gives the birds, such as sunshine, rain, a mother bird bringing a worm, etc.*

When we worry, we can feel all mixed up.
But it doesn't have to be that way. What can we do?

These letters are upside down. Flip them right side up.

Next, write them in the boxes below. What word do they spell?

Who does Jesus want us to trust?

Unscramble the word below to get the answer.

O G D

We can leave all our worries in God's hands
because he loves us and cares for us.

God is in control, and can bring good out of anything.
Trust him to do just that!
