Message We just had a holiday. Anyone remember what it was? [Thanksgiving] Yes, and after Thanksgiving comes the first season of the church Year. Four Sundays before Christmas is Advent. That’s today and that means that today is the beginning of the church year. Advent starts the church year because it’s just before Jesus is born. The church calendar tells the story of Jesus’ life and it helps us all year long so we don’t miss a thing. It goes like this. ADVENT – looking forward to Jesus’ birth. The hope of a Savior! CHRISTMAS – Jesus is born! Beginning of the 12 days of Christmas. EPIPHANY – Jesus starts his ministry. He gets baptized and shows a couple of disciples that he is God’s Son. LENT – Jesus tells the disciples that he will be crucified and rise from the dead. It starts with Ash Wednesday and goes through Holy Week. EASTER – He is risen indeed! And Jesus goes back to heaven to be with the Father. PENTECOST – Begins with the day of Pentecost, which was the day the Holy Spirit came to the Apostles. The season includes Trinity Sunday, Reformation, All Saints Day, and Thanksgiving. It’s the season of growth for the church when all the Apostles went around telling people the good news of Jesus life, death, and resurrection. So, today is HAPPY NEW YEAR! Should we celebrate? Say it loud everyone: HAPPY NEW YEAR!!
Repeat Prayer	Dear Jesus, You have given us so much! Thank you for giving us people / who teach us about you. Thank you for giving us a church / to teach us about you. Help us to learn about you / and share your love. Thank you for loving us. We love you. Amen.
