But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

Now after the Sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you."

An angel told Mary and Mary Magdalene not to be afraid.
Jesus had risen from the dead!

Children's Worship Pages

Jesus rose from the dead!
 Because of him, we will live forever, too.
 This wonderful news fills Christians with joy!

Fill the empty shapes with happy designs,
 so they match the decorated ones. Then, color the pictures.

The women were sad that Easter morning.
 But soon, their sorrow turned to joy!

Second Sunday of Easter

April 12, 2026

Jesus came to the disciples and said,
“Peace be with you.”

Children's Worship Pages

Jesus is alive and has saved us! Like the disciples, we can share this good news with others!

Think of several people that you can tell about Jesus.

*Draw each one of them,
showing how they'll feel after hearing your message.*

Write their names under the drawings.

"And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ."

(Acts 5:42)

Complete this name:

JESUS _ _ _ _ _

Write your last name on the line below:

Is "Christ" the last name of Jesus?
What does "Christ" mean?

To find out, circle every other letter in the crown, starting with the letter, "A."

Write the circled letters on the lines below the crown.

"Christ" means:

Christians are followers of Jesus Christ.
In Bible times, kings were anointed.
Jesus is our King, sent by God to save us!

Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10, 2026

God sent the Holy Spirit to be our Helper, and to guide us all our lives.

Children's Worship Pages

In Athens, Paul saw a lot of idols that honored false gods. This upset him. He reminded the people that we are made in the image of the one true God. God isn't made of gold or stone, so he can't be a statue.

*Color all the pictures.
Then, circle the things that are made in God's image.*

God gave us the Ten Commandments to teach us how to live.

Draw a line from the commandment on the left to its meaning on the right. The first one is done for you.

You shall have no other gods.

Do not take anyone's life.

You shall not take God's name in vain.

Don't desire someone else's home.

Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

Don't say untrue things about people.

Honor your father and mother.

Only worship the one, true God.

You shall not kill.

Treat your parents with respect.

You shall not commit adultery.

Don't take something that isn't yours.

You shall not steal.

Only use God's name when you're talking about or praying to him.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor

Don't desire things that aren't yours.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house

Set aside one day a week to worship God.

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse, or anything that is his.

Be faithful to your spouse.

*Imagine that you were chosen to be a disciple.
What would be the most exciting part of the job for you?
Draw or write about it here:*

Jesus' friends loved him very much. What do you think they talked about after he went back up to heaven?

Write what they are saying in the word bubbles, and color the picture!
